8 Other proceedings

(1) This regulation applies to the following proceedings:

- (a) every application, under section 6\(5\) of the Act, for an order declaring whether the person or persons named in the application are—
 - (i) employees under the Act; or
 - (ii) employees or workers within the meaning of any of the Acts specified in section 223\(1\) of the Act;
- (b) any proceedings founded on tort and brought under section 99 of the Act;
- (c) any proceedings under section 100 of the Act for the grant of an injunction;
- (d) any action under section 133 of the Act for the recovery of a penalty under the Act;
- (e) any application under section 139\(4\) of the Act for a compliance order;
- (f) any application for review, or other proceedings, brought under section 194 of the Act;
- (g) any other proceedings within the jurisdiction of the court that do not involve a challenge to a determination, or any part of a determination, of the Authority.

(2) Proceedings to which this regulation applies are commenced by filing, with the Registrar of the court, 3 copies of a statement of claim in form 2.

(3) The amount of the prescribed fee for filing a statement of claim is reduced by the amount of any fee paid by the plaintiff under regulation 13A for filing an application for leave to serve a statement of claim on an overseas party in the same proceedings.

(4) The prescribed fee, or the reduced prescribed fee, must be paid at or before the time at which the statement of claim is filed.

Regulation 8(3): substituted, on 10 December 2004, by regulation 4 of the Employment Court Amendment Regulations 2004 (SR 2004/422).
Regulation 8(4): added, on 10 December 2004, by regulation 4 of the Employment Court Amendment Regulations 2004 (SR 2004/422).

9 Proceedings founded on tort and proceedings for grant of injunctions

(1) The provisions of the High Court Rules 2016 that apply in relation to proceedings founded on tort apply, with all necessary modifications, in relation to any proceedings to which regulation 8\(1\)\(b\) applies.

(2) The provisions of the High Court Rules 2016 that apply in relation to proceedings for the grant of injunctions apply, with all necessary modifications, in relation to any proceedings to which regulation 8\(1\)\(c\) applies.

(3) Subclauses (1) and (2) are subject to the other provisions of these regulations and to any rules made, or directions given, by the court.

139 Power of court to order compliance

(1) This section applies where any person has not observed or complied with—

(a) any provision of Part 8; or

(b) any order, determination, direction, or requirement made or given under this Act by the court.

(1A) This section also applies to a person in relation to whom the court has made a declaration of breach under section 142B.

(2) Where this section applies, the court may, in addition to any other power it may exercise, by order require, in or in conjunction with any proceedings under this Act to which that person is a party or in respect of which that person is a witness, that person to do any specified thing or to cease any specified activity, for the purpose of preventing further non-observance of or non-compliance with that provision, order, determination, direction, requirement, or (in the case of a declaration of breach) the provision that the declaration relates to.

(3) The court must specify a time within which the order is to be obeyed.

(4) Where any person (being an employee, employer, union, or employer organisation) alleges that that person has been affected by a non-observance or non-compliance of the kind described in subsection (1), that person may commence proceedings against any other person in respect of the non-observance or non-compliance by applying to the court for an order of the kind described in subsection (2).

Good Afternoon

Mr Church is entirely incorrect in suggesting that approach. It does not follow the proper practice and procedure.

Kia ora Mr Church and Mr Anderson,

Thank you.

I acknowledge receipt of your emails, the defendant's memorandum of counsel (and annexures) and the amended statement of defence.

I will address these tomorrow when I am able to, unfortunately I do not have capacity to do so today.

Ngā mihi | Kind Regards,
Holly Kerr
